

From the Office of the Mayor

Welcome to the monthly newsletter from The Office of the Mayor, curated by Mayor Sakbun himself. This newsletter highlights upcoming City events, street closures, ongoing City project updates, public safety information, and whatever else the Mayor thinks you, the citizens, should be informed of this month.

"The Spring City-Wide Cleanup is in 12 days! Read below for more details and prep to bring your items!"

-Mayor Sakbun

"The spring weather is slowly coming in. I think we could all use a break from the cold! With the change of seasons comes spring cleaning. The city continues to focus resources on addressing blight, trash, and debris in our community. The Trash Task Force has successfully cleaned over 70 tons of trash throughout alleys in our city. Our Department of Redevelopment has authorized the demolition of over 25 residential condemned homes for the first quarter of 2025. This is on top of our two large commercial demolition projects and keeps us on pace to remove at least 100 condemned homes this year. However, we aren't focused on just the removal of debris. We are equally as focused on rebuilding our community. Spring is also known for the start of construction season. Of course in Terre Haute, the sun is always shining and building is ALWAYS happening. Starting April 1st, government projects and private developments will occur in full force. From sidewalks to streets, we are actively rebuilding this city from the ground up."

-Mayor Brandon Sakbun

Park Equipment Update

The Terre Haute Park's and Recreation Department has been hard at work. There is a lot of deferred maintenance that has taken time and resources to address. Our full time staff and Parks Board have done an excellent job planning for the future while addressing present day challenges.

The slide at Vorhees Park has been replaced, plus the playground at Booker T. Washington Park has undergone much needed repair!

See previous news letters for more planned spring updates.

The City is currently undergoing several large-scale park renovations like Herz Rose, Rea, the YMCA, and the Deming Park Pool." Said Mayor Brandon Sakbun, "The projects listed above may be smaller in size and scope but they will have a lasting impact on neighborhoods and in our community. We continue to do more with less here in Terre Haute. None of these projects were funded by property taxes and no tax increases were necessary to make projects happen."

"Every child in Terre Haute deserves a quality park regardless of their zip code. Our mission is simple-provide quality parks and recreation to the entire community. This will take time. But we are moving in the right direction."

Mayor's Youth Council Coy Park Project Update

We did it—and then some! Thanks to your incredible generosity, the Mayor's Youth Council Coy Park fundraiser has not only hit but surpassed the $35,000 goal! That means the IHCDCA will match it with another $35,000, bringing us even closer to making Coy Park's accessible playground a reality. We are still fundraising for this project, and every dollar goes to the park! The goal is to build this park this year, and with your help, we can get it done.

Indiana Housing and Community Development Authority's (IHCDCA) CreatINg Places program.

project of creating an accessible playground space in the City-owned Coy Park in North Terre Haute.

The IHCDCA has pledged a matching grant, meaning that if the Mayor's Youth Council reaches its goal of $35,000, IHCDCA will match the funds, doubling the impact of the campaign. This initiative is part of the My Community, My Vision (MCMV) program, which empowers youth to engage in civic leadership and community development.
